FOOTBALL & LEADERSHIP

MODULE ONE

ABOUT

FOOTBALL & LEADERSHIP

After 15 years of experience working within the English Premier League, Hyundai A-League and the Danish Superliga, that exposure at the elite level has provided head coach Scott Miller with fantastic insight into the leadership styles of some of the worlds elite footballer managers.

The football & leadership program is aimed at aspiring and professional coaches that want to identify their personal leadership principles, build high performing teams, lead change and innovation whilst positively influencing the team dynamic.

Designed to challenge, guide and support team cohesion it's structured framework identifies and strengthens the dominant key areas that unite teams high performance culture focus and direction.

THE PURPOSE

How do we as leaders design and implement a structure that can influence our team dynamic to ensure sustainable team cohesion and focus?

The characteristics of a modern leader require high emotional intelligence, a defining purpose that is inspiring and the ability to engage and build trust with its athletes and staff.

Executed correctly, the leader can positively influence organisational culture, and enhance performance through empowerment of more effective teams.

“

Scott Miller is an outstanding football person. He has a relevant and contemporary approach to creating and sustaining a High Performance environment, through theoretic and practical learning in the Professional game. I have seen only a few people, who can energise and educate the way Scott can. He is one of the most organised and knowledgeable coaches I have worked with. His knowledge is surpassed only by the enthusiasm and energy he brings, complimenting a strong strategic acumen with an undeniable ability to relate with players and staff respectfully on an emotional level.
